FREE cancer voices workshop by Macmillan

Tuesday 29th November 2011

Improving cancer services* is especially for people affected by cancer, carers and health professionals.

This is your chance to turn your cancer experience into something positive. A chance to improve cancer services for people right across the UK. A chance to get your voice heard.

Improving cancer services covers everything from writing to your local politician to using Facebook to speak up about the issues that you care about.

The time
10am–4pm

Thanks to people like you attending workshops like this, Macmillan recently helped scrap prescription charges for people living with cancer in the UK. We're determined to make further, faster changes. But – and this is the important bit – we can't do it alone.

The place
Albrighton, Wolverhampton

To help us improve the lives of people with cancer, sign up for our workshop today by contacting Ann Lake or Fiona Daley on: ann.lake@wolvespct.nhs.uk or fiona.daley@wolvespct.nhs.uk
